REPRESENTATIVE DON BEYER
U.S. House of Representatives

Congressman Don Beyer is serving his third term as the U.S. Representative from Virginia's 8th District, representing Arlington, Alexandria, Falls Church, and parts of Fairfax County. He serves on the House Ways and Means Committee, the House Committee on Science, Space and Technology, and the Joint Economic Committee. He was the Lieutenant Governor of Virginia from 1990 to 1998, and was Ambassador to Switzerland and Liechtenstein under President Barack Obama.

Representative Beyer's signature work as lieutenant governor included advocacy for Virginians with disabilities and ensuring protections for Virginia's most vulnerable populations as the Commonwealth reformed its welfare system in the mid-1990s. Representative Beyer was Virginia's Democratic nominee for governor in 1997.

Representative Beyer has spent four decades building his family business in Northern Virginia after a summer job at a car dealership in 1974. He is a magna cum laude graduate of Williams College with a Bachelor of Arts with the Highest Honors in Economics and was elected Phi Beta Kappa. He was Salutatorian at Gonzaga College High School in Washington, DC and named a Presidential Scholar by President Lyndon Johnson. Rep. Beyer has four children and two grandchildren. He and his wife Megan live in Alexandria, Virginia.

REPRESENTATIVE ANTHONY BROWN
U.S. House of Representatives

Anthony Brown was elected to his first term representing Maryland's 4th Congressional District - encompassing parts of Anne Arundel and Prince George's Counties - on November 8, 2016 and was sworn in on January 3, 2017. He was reelected in November 2018.

Congressman Brown serves on the House Armed Services Committee where he helps shape the policies to ensure we maintain the best-trained and best equipped military, make the right investments to fight 21st century threats, and keep our country strong and safe. Congressman Brown is also a member of the House Committee of Natural Resources working to ensure future generations of Marylanders enjoy a clean and healthy environment. He was also tapped by Democratic leaders to serve on the equally-divided House Committee on Ethics. The Ethics Committee interprets, investigates and enforces the House Code of Official Conduct and rules regarding gifts, financial disclosure and other activities of Members of Congress and employees

The son of immigrants and raised in a home where his father was the first in the family to ever attend college, Congressman Brown was taught the value of service at a young age. Through his military and public service, Anthony has devoted his life to serving his community and defending our nation.

A retired Colonel in the United States Army Reserve, Congressman Brown's military record spanned more than a quarter century as an aviator and JAG officer, during which time he graduated first in his flight class and received both Airborne and Air Assault qualifications. Congressman Brown was awarded the Legion of Merit for his distinguished military service. In 2004, he was deployed to Iraq, where he earned a Bronze Star and became one of the nation's highest-ranking elected officials at that time to serve a tour of duty in that conflict.

In 1998, Congressman Brown was first elected to the Maryland House of Delegates to represent Prince George's County. Recognized by his colleagues for his leadership, Congressman Brown rose quickly, serving as Vice Chair of the powerful House Judiciary Committee and, later, as Majority Whip.

REPRESENTATIVE GERRY CONNOLLY
U.S. House of Representatives

Congressman Gerald E. “Gerry” Connolly is serving his sixth term in the U.S. House of Representatives from Virginia’s 11th District, which includes Fairfax County, Prince William County, and the City of Fairfax in Northern Virginia. Prior to his election to Congress, Mr. Connolly served 14 years on the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, including five years as Chairman. Throughout his career, protecting and growing Northern Virginia’s economy has been his top priority.

Congressman Connolly is a senior member of the House Committee on Oversight and Reform and serves as the Chairman of the Subcommittee on Government Operations. In this role, he is responsible for shaping government-wide policy for a broad range of issues, including federal workforce and federal agency oversight, federal procurement and information policy, national drug policy, regulatory reform, the United States Postal Service, the United States Census Bureau, and the District of Columbia.

Throughout his tenure in Congress, Mr. Connolly has been a fierce advocate for the federal workforce and FMA. In February 2019 he reintroduced the FAIR Act (H.R. 1073) which would provide a 3.6 percent pay raise across the federal workforce in 2020. Mr. Connolly also introduced the First Responder Fair RETIRE Act (H.R. 1256) and the Equal COLA Act (H.R. 1254) early in the 116th Congress. During his tenure, Connolly has supported many pieces of legislation friendly to FMA. He was an original cosponsor of the Wounded Warriors Federal Leave Act (P.L. 114-75), which President Obama signed into law, as well as the RECOVER Act (H.R. 3029), which would have provided lifetime coverage and protection for all people affected by the OPM data breach.

Mr. Connolly was born in Boston, Massachusetts, in March 1950. He then received an M.A. in Public Administration from Harvard University in 1979 and a B.A. in Literature from Maryknoll College in Glen Ellyn, Illinois. He currently lives in Fairfax with his wife Cathy and has a daughter Caitlin.

REPRESENTATIVE JAMIE RASKIN

U.S. House of Representatives

Congressman Jamie Raskin proudly represents Maryland's 8th Congressional District in the U.S. House of Representatives. The district includes parts of Montgomery, Carroll, and Frederick Counties. Raskin was sworn in to the 115th Congress on January 3, 2017. He was re-elected on November 6, 2018.

Congressman Raskin is a member of the House Committee on Oversight and Reform, servicing on the Subcommittee on Government Operations and Chairman of the Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Subcommittee. He also serves on the House Rules Committee, the House Judiciary Committee, the Joint Committee on Printing and on House Administration.

For more than 25 years, Congressman Raskin has been a professor of constitutional law at American University's Washington College of Law. He authored several books, including the Washington Post best-seller, "Overruling Democracy: The Supreme Court versus the American People," and the highly-acclaimed, "We the Students: Supreme Court Cases For and About America's Students," which has sold more than 50,000 copies.

Prior to his time in Congress, Jamie was a three-term State Senator in Maryland, where he also served as the Senate Majority Whip. He quickly earned a reputation for building coalitions in Annapolis, and delivered a series of landmark legislative accomplishments.
